

Your presence is a wonderful present!

But since a birthday gift is the rule,
and no presents would be cruel,
I've set up this nifty gift pool!

It's all really easy, not at all hard.
Do it right on-line with your credit card.

I'll take the money that's sent to the pool
And buy David a gift from all-one that's truly cool!

Just go online to the address at the end enter my email, follow the instructions and your gift it will send.
